

Wine Festival rocks Qormi...

Written by WebSite Administrator

Saturday, 05 September 2009 05:47 - Last Updated Wednesday, 09 September 2009 08:55

Wine Festival rocks Qormi ...and is ready for more tonight!

The first day of the Qormi Wine Festival on Friday night proved to be a huge success with over 5,000 people who flocked to this beautiful city to be part of this annual wine event - making it the biggest festival of its sort in Qormi.

From late in the afternoon, many families and tourists started to gather for the opening of the Wine Festival which this year marks its fifth edition. The night kicked off with a performance from the Ghaxaq Folk Group and then the band of Mark Spiteri Lucas pumped-up the night with its 3 hour concert. A big thanks goes to the band and also to the vocalists Eleanor Cassar, Natasha and Charlene, and also Neville Refalo.

The streets were busy till late in the evening. People gathered in front of the Rock Stage, near the other stage where folk music was being played, inside the Parish Church, in the various alleys surrounding the area, while others enjoyed the many exhibitions forming part of this year's festival.

Wine Festival rocks Qormi...

Written by WebSite Administrator

Saturday, 05 September 2009 05:47 - Last Updated Wednesday, 09 September 2009 08:55

All the stalls are open and the food is as fresh as the wine. The Qormi Wine Festival is a Saturday organization. New all

Wine Festival rocks Qormi...

Written by WebSite Administrator

Saturday, 05 September 2009 05:47 - Last Updated Wednesday, 09 September 2009 08:55

More info and photos to be uploaded very shortly. Keep visiting this site for updates.