

A festival like no other!

The QORMI WINE FESTIVAL came to a close on Saturday 6th September with a massive show on Main Stage by Claudia Faniello and her band, marking the 10th consecutive edition of this event.

The organizing committee got very good feedback on this years' event, especially on the setup and professionalism shown by all the team - we promised two nights to remember, and we truly kept our promise! Apart from this, there was also huge demand for the food dishes that were prepared on both nights by our dedicated kitchen staff.

One can say that the Qormi Wine Festival has established itself as a trademark in itself, attracting not only people from Malta but also many foreigners and tourists.

We were glad that amongst us there were tourists who told us that they came to Malta for the 4th time in a row, just to attend the Qormi Wine Festival. "It is our fourth year in Qormi and we simply can't miss this unique festival", said one particular tourist.

Present at the event on Saturday we also spotted other VIP's and distinguished guests such as the US ambassador for Malta, the US ambassador for Libya (who is currently based in Malta), Members of Parliament, Errol from Airport Impressions and many more.
